

WILLIMANTIC

Norwich Bulletin, Willimantic Office,
15 Church street, Telephone 185.

Rev. Harry S. McCready, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, has received a call from the Center church of South Manchester. The action of the Center church was taken at a meeting of the Board of Christian Service held Thursday evening. It was stated that Rev. Mr. McCready had completed the year at this church several times during the past year and that it was generally believed he would accept the call. The pastor of the Center church is Dr. J. H. Smith.

Center church is $2200 yearly, with use of the parsonage.

Friday Rev. Mr. McCready had received no official notice of the action taken by the South Manchester church and would make no statement as to whether or not he would accept the pastorate when official notice was received. He stated, however, that when the call came through the proper channel, he would give it careful consideration. Rev. Mr. McCready came to this city about two years ago and took up the Congregational pastorate. During his service at that church he has made many friends who will regret to have him leave.

Leah Dachs and Louis Polick, both of Willimantic, were injured Friday evening and treated for injuries received when the Reo automobile which Mr. Dachs was driving crashed on Spring street, at the foot of Chestnut street hill. Dachs suffered cuts on the hands, Polick being cut about the face. Their injuries were not serious and they are expected to return to their homes after being treated at the hospital.

The car was driven into the rear of Dachs' home, where it was being stored. The car was badly wrecked and the front of the house was damaged to some extent by the force of the impact. The automobile was covered by insurance.

The local police raided three saloons in various parts of the city Friday evening, shortly before 10 o'clock. A thorough search of the buildings in which the saloons were located failed to bring to light any intoxicating liquors. The raids were conducted in a quiet manner, two policemen walking into each of the three saloons. Those visited Friday night were owned or run by John McQuillan, at No. 624 Main street, Anselm Bernier at No. 335 Main street, and John Markowski at No. 27 Jackson street.

Members of the Junior Y. M. C. A. will enjoy another Saturday hike today, if the weather is favorable.

Following the Sunday afternoon sing at the Y. M. C. A. Rev. Harry S. McCready, pastor of the First Congregational church, is to speak. His subject will be in keeping with the "Share With Others Day" program. Following the talk of Rev. Mr. McCready three reels of motion pictures will be shown. These are the Hawaiian Islands, Welfare Work of the National Tube Company, and The Coast Guards.

Many Willimantic dancers attended the dance at South Windham Friday evening, some of them going in costume, the dance being a masquerade.

Franklin
Last Friday evening a delightful entertainment was given in the form of an old folks' concert at the Congregational church in Franklin, when about 30 young men and women of the community appeared in costumes representing the Revolutionary days through to the Civil war period. The program was in charge of Mrs. William Tate, Mrs. Earl Rogers, and Mrs. F. S. Armstrong, with Miss Florence Hoffman as the master of ceremonies. The program was a most interesting one in the preparation of the program. F. S. Armstrong led the chorus and Mrs. Tate sang.

WILLINGTON

Mrs. Clarence Hoar, Miss Phyllis Ryder and John Mirtz motored to Springfield Saturday.

The Ladies Aid society will meet the second and fourth Thursdays of each month. For the past year there have been few meetings and little interest has been shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Cator have had word that their son, now located in Worcester, is recovering after four weeks' illness with pneumonia.

Edwin Carpenter was in Willimantic two days this week, getting Hans Hanson's car.

Leon Woodworth has the use for the winter of William Brackett's horse, which he is caring for at his home on the Hill.

A committee of two of the Hill patrol of Boy Scouts went to South Willington Tuesday night and gave the tenderfoot examination. Carl Smith had the highest record.

Rev. Theodore Bacheler preached on Temperance Sunday last.

Professor Barker of Boston was a guest and guest of George Congrove and family.

Capt. (Mrs.) G. V. Smith and the Girl Scouts met Saturday afternoon at the church parlors.

John Halland of Goshen, Mass., will supply the pulpit at the Baptist church in Willingford.

Friends from Windsor were guests at Belmont Sunday.

Rev. Theodore Bacheler will preach at Mansfield Depot Sunday. Next week there will be special services, of which Mr. Bacheler will have charge.

Friday evening, Jan. 21, the Boy Scouts invited the Girl Scouts to a garden party. The girls dressed in costume representing fruit, vegetables or flowers. Prizes were given for the best garden and the best costume.

A paper has been circulated about town for John Hemmeller, whose blacksmith shop and tools were burned recently. He carried no insurance and had worked there for 30 years. Mr. Hemmeller was a member of the Baptist church in Willimantic.

All Baptist churches in the state have been requested to have special services this time this winter or in spring. Dr. H. H. Rollison, pastor of the Baptist church in Hanover, is the state and board of promotion in the state, and formerly pastor of the First Baptist church in Willimantic, will conduct services in this town for a week commencing Feb. 6 at 10 o'clock. He will be assisted by Rev. Theodore Bacheler, Leo Legner, from New York, who erected a mausoleum for Gardiner Hall, has been in Dallas, Tex., two months for his firm. Mr. and Mrs. Legner have a number of friends here.

The following from a Middletown paper of Monday will be of interest to friends of Mr. Rollison in New London county as well as in Hanover:

A large and enthusiastic audience greeted Rev. H. H. Rollison Sunday morning when he delivered his first sermon as pastor of the South Congregational church. The weather was all that could be desired in mid-January and the interest has been maintained ever since the call to the South church was accepted and the day for Mr. Rollison's coming announced, consequently the congregation was a very large one.

The new pastor is a man in the middle 30s, with pleasant manner, cordial smile, sincere bearing and fine pulpit presence. He took for his text the early verse in the Philippians, "being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ." and delighted his hearers with a logical and forceful sermon of much originality and power. The discourse left no doubt in the minds of the people, and the coming of Mr. Rollison brings a strong addition to the pulpit strength of this city and to this section of the state.

Rev. Mr. Rollison, who is a native of New Hampshire, has been a member of the church in Hanover for nearly five years, having gone to that parish from the academy. He leaves his former parish with regret, for he has been a good pastor and a good friend to the people. He has received a warm welcome from his new congregation which must have gratified him by its warmth and spontaneity. The congregation of the South church has cause to rejoice in the happy ending of its time without a shepherd.

UNCASVILLE

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church met with Mrs. Albert Avery of Hilltop Thursday afternoon, when final arrangements were made for a chicken pie supper at the business session it was voted to invite the Monticello women to a joint meeting Feb. 23, when Miss Gladys Stratton of Norwich will address the meeting. Mrs. Avery served sandwiches, cake and chocolate. The collection was about $2.

William Vallette spent Thursday in Saybrook.

Mrs. George Dart is suffering with a severe cold.

Miss Yella Freiberg has returned from a trip to New York.

The members of the Epworth league are planning a social to be held in the chapel next week.

Mrs. Claud Wilson of Norwich spent Thursday with her aunt, Mrs. Albert Avery.

Sunday, Jan. 18, being the birthday of Mrs. Charles Hoar, she was pleasantly surprised in the evening at her home by members of the Ladies Aid society, accompanied by their husbands. Mrs. Hoar has been treasurer of the society for years and the members improved the opportunity to show their appreciation of her services. There was singing, also music on the violin. In behalf of the society, Mrs. William Beckwith presented

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit, 15c and 30c.

Mrs. Hoar has a electric toaster, a gift with which she was much pleased. Cake and chocolate were served.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

David Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Scenic effects of surpassing beauty and exotic charm are strong features of "Dead Men Tell No Tales," the Viagraph-Tom Terrill special production, which will be shown at the David theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The picture is a gripping story of the development of the stirring drama, which is taken from the famous novel of the same name by E. W. Hornung, not only a "thriller" and other great adventure stories.

Some of the most brilliant of the pictures were taken at sea, far out of sight of land. Moonlight on the ocean, wonderful marine surprises, the sea in many moods, give an amazingly fascinating atmosphere, which is worked into the story itself. Against the calm beauty of sunrise and set strange and terrible events are portrayed by his many performances, never loses its grip on the audience.

A large company of players, headed by Catherine Calvert, Percy Marmont, Gustav Voss, Seymour and Holmes R. Horner, each a star, braved the perils of fire and explosion at sea in order to get the proper effects out of the big spectacular scene of the production, the sinking of the Lady Jermyn, the Australian gold ship.

As a counter attraction, and to send you away with a smile, a very funny Mack Sennett comedy will also be shown, entitled "Scout's Recalling Charlie Murray." A Paramount Magazine concludes the programme.

Strand.

Strand theatre, Sunday night, this photograph, "Love or Justice?" is the name of the Thomas H. Ince production, Louise Giam. It was written by Lambert Hillier and produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince.

The story deals with the underworld and how two characters who are in contact the big moments of their lives while swayed by an overmastering passion.

Tom Moore, supported by Marguerite Courtel in Girl and the Bachelor. A short drama. That big western star, Thunderbolt Jacy, a ride for life. Episode 1. Mack Sennett's comedy, "Up in Arms," Charles Murray and the Combe. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. "Neglected Wives," a screen version of the celebrated international stage success, "Why Women Sin," which stars Miss Anna Luther, whose brilliant characterization lends an added charm to this great melodrama. Included in the cast are such well known and popular players as Claire Whitney, Charles Gerard, R. J. Radcliffe, Baby Ivy Ward and the Combe. The story has a vital, gripping appeal that will never be forgotten. This is the picture shown in other cities at the same time. Costly and betwixt are also employed.

Today Edith Roberts and David Butler in "The Triflers." Evidence and Law, short western drama. Comedy, Almost Married, Matinee today, children 10 cents adults 24 and 25 cents. Concert orchestra at the Strand.
